The Cronkite - NBC News Internship

Spend the semester at NBC News and gain the experience needed to start your journalism career as a Cronkite/NBC News Intern. NBC Universal and The Walter Cronkite School of Journalism and Mass Communication now offer two New York internships to work on the network’s top shows for a semester. Applications must be received by June 25, 2010, for the Fall 2010 semester, so act now!

Additional Information:
• Placement may be made on any NBC News program
• Internship is unpaid. Students must be able to receive academic credit from Arizona State University prior to starting assignment
• The Walter Cronkite School of Journalism and Mass Communication has scholarships available up to $2000 per student to help defray living costs

Qualifications:
• Enrolled in a Bachelor's or Master's program at The Walter Cronkite School of Journalism and Mass Communication
• 18 years or older and successfully completed JMC 301 or JMC 315
• Must have a GPA of 3.0 or higher

To Apply:
• Send your cover letter, resume and three references to Mike Wong, Director of Career Services, Walter Cronkite School of Journalism and Mass Communication at cronkitecareerservices@asu.edu